Tips to begin your Freshman Planning:

- Meet with your high school counselor.
- Create a four-year high school plan.
- Start thinking about your life after school, including the types of careers that might interest you.
- Athletes interested in collegiate athletics should check eligibility requirements needed for the NCAA and NAIA.
- Take a rigorous curriculum of courses.
- Establish good study habits realizing all course results are now considered for graduation and college admissions.
- Participate in extracurricular activities (think quality, not quantity).
- Explore summer opportunities.
